USER TERM STREAM MP3 PLAYER

HOW TO CHARGE

- Plug the included USB cord in the headphone jack of the H2O Stream to either a computer or a USB wall adapter

- The light will be Solid Red while charging, and turn Solid Blue when fully charged (it takes about 3 hours to fully charge).

- Your H2O Stream has a battery life of 8-10 hours (depending on use).

HOW TO ADD CONTENT (PC)

- Connect the H2O Stream to your computer with the included USB cord.

- The computer will recognize the H2O Stream as a new drive.

- Find the music you would like to copy to your H2O Stream, right-click the music, hover over "Send to", then click "H2O STREAM".

- When finished "Eject" the H2O Stream by double clicking it in the System Tray.

HOW TO ADD CONTENT (MAC)

NOTE: iTunes music needs to be converted to .MP3 format.

- Connect the H2O Stream to your computer with the included USB cord.

- Your Mac will recognize your H2O Stream as a drive which will appear on your desktop. Or, open the Finder and "H2O STREAM" will appear under "Devices"

- Open a new Finder window and find the music you would like to copy

- Drag and drop the music onto the H20 Stream icon on your desktop

- When finished "Eject" the H2O Stream by dragging the icon to the "Trash"

BLUETOOTH PLAY

UNIT OPERATION / BLUETOOTH PLAY

The H2O STREAM can receive Bluetooth music from your smartphone and play it. You will need to pair your STREAM with your smartphone to enable this feature.

To Pair STREAM with Smartphone:

- Press Bluetooth button to switch the device from 'Play from Memory' mode to 'Bluetooth Play'. You should hear "Bluetooth Play".

- To enter into Pairing Mode, hold the Bluetooth button until you hear the voice "Bluetooth Pairing Mode". You should then see the H2O STREAM device appear in your phone Bluetooth settings. Select the device to connect. The pairing is only needed once. Your smartphone should remember your setting the next time you power on your H2O Stream.

- Turn on the music on your smartphone and select Bluetooth function. Make sure the H2O Stream is ON and you have selected "Bluetooth Play" mode.
